

Ian Pyeatt

4842 Swiss Ave Apt 2
Dallas, TX 75204

pyeatt08@gmail.com
806-292-9711

I'm passionate about coffee, people, and learning new ways to grow within the coffee community.

Education

BFA in Two Dimensional Studio Art (Graphic Design) Wayland Baptist University, May 2016

3.52 (Cum Laude)

Outstanding Student in Latin, Spring 2014

Who's Who Award, Spring 2015

Who's Who Award, Spring 2016

Experience

Ascension Coffee (Barista)

February 2017 - Present

At Ascension, one of the highest volume craft coffee shops in Dallas, having a high quality coffee standard, being efficient and precise, and maintaining a warm customer experience are required to succeed as a barista. I learned to handle criticism, be efficient and precise, and further develop my ability to engage and educate customers on coffee.

Abraham Art Gallery (Gallery Assistant)

August 2016 - December 2016

As gallery assistant my responsibilities included helping the curator in shipping and receiving exhibitions, installation, and creating promotional materials for the gallery.

The Broadway Brew (Barista/Night Shift Supervisor)

May 2011 - January 2013 | October 2014 - August 2016

The Broadway Brew is where I cultivated my love for coffee and people. I learned the technicalities of various coffee equipment, communication in a work environment, latte art, and excellent customer service.

Skills

Clean - Organized - Attentive to detail - Efficient - Strong communication
- Quick learner - Familiar with La Marzocco/Synesso Machinery

References

Candace Keller | Abraham Art Gallery (Curator) | 806-291-1000

Matt Smith | Great Plains Equipment Rental (Owner) | 806-773-9016

Bradley Sell | The Broadway Brew (Owner) | 806-336-5611